Upcoming Events...

Langley Meets Munich, Saturday October 1st

Fourth annual Oktoberfest of Langley, with authentic German-style brews, beer games, brats and the Bavarian Village Players on tap for Saturday, October 1st.

Beginning at 10 a.m., limited-edition Langley Oktoberfest boot steins will be available at the Visitor Information Center located at 208 Anthes Avenue. In these boots, Oktoberfest goers will find a free drink ticket and maps of businesses offering Oktoberfest specials.

First Annual Scarecrow Festival, Sunday October 2nd

The first-ever Scarecrow Festival is Saturday, October 1, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the grass at Fiddle Faddle Farm (fairgrounds in Langley). Cost is $10 per scarecrow, or purchase one of the Fair's ready-made characters. If it rains, there's plenty of dry barn space to accommodate everyone. Bring the entire family, enjoy free hotdogs and hamburgers, and start a new family tradition by building your own scarecrow. This is a great team event!

Carve Pumpkins Underwater, Sunday October 30th

Whidbey Island Dive Center is hosting their annual underwater pumpkin carving contest at the South Whidbey Harbor at Langley. Contestants will meet at Phil Simon Park starting at 1 p.m. and need to supply their own pumpkin. Carving is to be accomplished using a dive knife. Prizes will be awarded for best carvings, and there will be a potluck picnic afterward. Whidbey Island Dive Center will provide non-alcoholic drinks for contestants. For more information, contact: Whidbey Island Dive Center at (360)-675-1112 or Pete Pehl, P2 Diving Services, (360) 672 2058.
